ANSWER TO TRUSTEE'S CONFIRMATION

This Answer is given to Trustee Nancy Spencer Grigsby Objection to Confirmation of my Chapter 13 Plan.

Counsel for the Trustee requested several amendments to my filings. I am attempting to provide those with this filing.

- a. Counsel requested that I amend my Schedule A. I don't understand the reasoning. As I read the form, it asks what the value of my interest in the property is. Well, if I am the Mortgagee, and I have only paid in about $4500.00 principal against the alleged loan, isn't my interest in the property $4500.00? Please explain further, if I am not understanding what should be on the form.
- b. I was unaware of Maryland having separate codes and have sought assistance in attempting to enter the correct codes. An amended Schedule C is attached.
- c. The past due bill for BGE has now been paid, so the only outstanding debt is the normal monthly bill. Do I need to add that to Schedule F?

In paragraph 4 of the Objection, the Trustee requests that I amend my plan to cover pre-petition arrears claimed by Nationstar. Since Nationstar has failed to validate that any loan was ever made to me, why do I need to pay something that I don't owe?

2 In paragraph 5 of the Objection, the Trustee says I have not properly objected to
3 Nationstar's proof of claim. I did properly object. Proof of mailing is attached, along with a
4 certificate of service for the record. Furthermore, I shouldn't have to object, as the Proof of
5 Claim was done by an attorney, and attorneys can not testify, especially about facts they have 6 no first hand knowledge of.

7
8 Paragraph 6, I will file my 2012 State and Federal Tax returns as soon as I am able.
